

Constitution Day

Constitution Day commemorates the formation and signing of the U.S. Constitution on September 17, 1787. It was started as a national initiative to increase awareness of the U.S. Constitution and recognize all who are born in the U.S. or by naturalization, have become citizens.

Each year Joyce University celebrates Constitution Day with an event and promotes awareness of the U.S. Constitution. Students, faculty, staff, and other members of the Joyce community read the Constitution and then are asked if they would sign the Constitution today. Joyce also provides voter registration information to all present.

This year's Constitution Day celebration will take place on Friday, September 16th, 2022. Specific times for special events will be announced by September 1, 2022.

Note: All institutions receiving federal funding are required to hold an education program pertaining to the United States Constitution on September 17 of each year (or in the preceding or following week if the date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday).
